

ANNA MARIA D'HULSTER

Anna Marie D'Hulster brings 14 years of board experience across diverse jurisdictions, sectors, and committees. She has held roles as a consultant, executive, and leader of a think-tank and industry advocacy organisation, showcasing a unique blend of strategic insight and leadership.

Her contributions to the boardroom are grounded in a strong business judgment, an entrepreneurial mindset, and deep expertise in governance, risk management, regulation and policymaking, sustainability/ESG, and finance. As a former CEO and strategy consultant, Anna Marie possesses a keen understanding of how strategic decisions translate into operational realities, ensuring a practical approach to organisational success.

As a board director, she fosters open and constructive dialogue, promotes transparency and collegiality, and is committed to accountability and achieving measurable outcomes. Her ultimate goal is to guide companies toward sustainable growth and superior performance through robust governance practices.

Anna Marie is also proud to serve as an ISC Ambassador, advocating for greater gender equity and stronger leadership within the re/insurance sector.
