DRIVE CHANGE, CHAMPION WOMEN

JENNETTE NEWMAN

Jennette has 25 years of experience in the legal and insurance law with the last 15 years focusing on leadership in business innovation, operational change, excellence in client service delivery and team development. She has a proven track record in delivering operational change and innovation, both internally and externally. This includes modernising business practices and improving client delivery models, penetrating new business sectors, and managing client relationships in the London Market, MGA sector, and DA.

Jennette is an experienced leader of professional teams with project management expertise in new product, service, and business development initiatives, both internally and for clients. She is also an experienced mentor and public speaker.

Her technical legal expertise spans international and UK casualty and coverage, liability, motor, health and safety, regulatory crime, and other related lines of business. Jennette provides advice and support to insurers, reinsurers, brokers, corporates, MGAs, capacity providers, and other organisations on claims, investigations, and defence litigation involving complex losses, catastrophic injuries, major incidents and disasters, and multi-jurisdictional incidents. Her expertise includes full business support around these incidents and resulting claims and investigations, advising on coverage issues, both primary and reinsurance, risk management advice, and the defence of potential prosecutions.
