

DAWN MILLER

Dawn Miller is the Chief Commercial Officer (CCO) and CEO of Lloyd's Americas, where she leads the commercial strategy for the global re/insurance marketplace. She was appointed to these roles in August 2024 and is responsible for overseeing Lloyd's operations in both the Americas and globally, driving growth and strategic initiatives. Dawn also serves as Chair of the Board of Trustees for the Insurance Industry Charitable Foundation (UK) and is a member of the International Women's Forum (IWF) at Lloyd's.

With over 25 years of experience in the insurance and risk management industry, Dawn has held numerous senior leadership positions. Before joining Lloyd's, she worked at Chubb, where she was the Regional Executive Officer for Switzerland, Turkey, and MENA, and served as the Country President for Chubb Insurance in Switzerland. Her previous roles include leadership positions at AXA and AIG, where she was responsible for business development, distribution, and client engagement across multiple regions, including Europe, the Middle East, and Africa.

Dawn is known for her exceptional leadership and strategic insights, particularly in expanding businesses and driving diversity and inclusion within the industry. She has a proven track record in creating impactful business development strategies and building high-performing teams.

In addition to her executive roles, Dawn is an ISC Ambassador, contributing her expertise to further the goals of the International Insurance and Reinsurance Community.
