

MONICA NINGEN

Monica Ningen is a seasoned leader in the reinsurance industry, with nearly three decades of experience driving strategic growth, fostering inclusive leadership, and delivering results. Since July 2023, she has overseen the economic performance of the US P&C Swiss Re legal entities, bringing her sharp strategic acumen and problem-solving expertise to the role.

Recognised for her ability to break down complex challenges into manageable solutions, Monica is known for her energetic and positive leadership style. Described as “colourful and full of positive energy,” she exemplifies a can-do attitude that inspires those around her. Her strong communication skills enable her to articulate vision with clarity, unite teams, navigate conflicts, and drive execution.

With a deep commitment to talent development, Monica excels in global management, mentoring, and fostering long-lasting relationships with clients and colleagues. She is a trusted voice on leadership, sustainability, and workplace inclusion, regularly sharing her expertise at industry conferences and through media contributions.

As an ISC Group Ambassador, Monica actively supports the advancement of women in the re/insurance sector. Through her leadership and advocacy, she helps shape the future of the industry by championing opportunities for women to thrive in leadership and governance roles.