

KAREN WILLIAMS

Karen Williams is a Senior Managing Director in the Private Equity Practice at Risk Strategies Company, where she has over 20 years of experience in designing, implementing, and managing both domestic and international insurance programs for a diverse range of commercial risks. Her expertise spans M&A due diligence, portfolio purchasing strategies, and managing risks across industries such as manufacturing, real estate, construction, financial services, healthcare, and hospitality.

Since joining Risk Strategies in 2011, Karen has held various leadership roles, including Executive Vice President and National Practice Leader, before becoming Senior Managing Director. She has consistently demonstrated exceptional leadership, team building, and strategic business planning capabilities, driving the growth and success of her practice.

In addition to her professional achievements, Karen is an ISC Ambassador, where she continues to contribute to the advancement of diversity and leadership within the insurance industry.

