

JUTTA KATH

Jutta Kath is an accomplished Non-Executive Director (NED), CEO, and business founder with over 30 years of experience in the insurance and reinsurance industry. She is also a career mentor, consultant, D&I expert, and public speaker. Since 2016, Jutta has held prestigious NED roles at Uniqa Insurance Group, Uniqa Insurance Austria in Vienna, and Uniqa Re in Zurich, bringing her extensive industry knowledge to board discussions and committee meetings, including audit, IT, and asset management.

Jutta's diverse professional background spans claims, underwriting, and operational aspects of the insurance sector, providing her with a 360-degree perspective on the business. Her international legal expertise has proven invaluable in understanding risk, while her coaching qualifications, including certification in Neurodynamic Self-Management (ZRM Training) from the University of Zurich, offer a unique insight into people's motivations and drivers.

In recent years, Jutta has expanded her expertise by working with an asset management firm, deepening her knowledge of what Insurance-Linked Securities (ILS) investors seek in alternative asset classes. In 2020, she founded uni-kath llc in Zurich, Switzerland, a company dedicated to consultancy and coaching services, further enhancing her portfolio of NED roles and professional endeavors.

As the ISC Country Chair for Switzerland, she continues to champion Diversity & Inclusion (D&I), as a key aspect of her professional practice. Jutta's specialties include motivational psychology and leadership development, demonstrated by her advanced studies in neurodynamic self-management. Her multifaceted expertise, combined with a passion for driving change and innovation, makes her a highly sought-after leader and mentor in the industry.
