

SWETA TZIMOPOULOS

Sweta is an ISC Ambassador and a senior business development and distribution leader within the re/insurance sector. She is passionate about seeing women excel and progress, and about helping create environments where talent is recognised, supported, and able to thrive.

Sweta's current role is Chief Distribution Officer at Argenta Group, and formally the Director of Distribution Strategy and Marketing for the UK & Bermuda at Ascot Underwriting Limited (Ascot Group). Whilst at Ascot, she built and embedded a distribution function across the Syndicate and Bermuda platform, strengthening broker engagement, supporting underwriters' commercial plans, and driving strategic initiatives to deliver sustainable growth. She was also a member of the Executive Committee, overseeing the marketing for the Syndicate.

Previously, Sweta held senior roles at Liberty Specialty Markets, including Head of Broker Proposition and Deputy Head of Business Development, where she led global market insights and broker strategies. Earlier in her career, she worked across transformation and consulting roles at Aon, Chaucer Syndicates, Barclays, Santander UK, and Alsbridge Consultancy.

Through her ISC Ambassador role, Sweta brings deep commercial insight and a strong commitment to supporting women across the sector to achieve their potential.
