

ANNE GAËLLE LEILLARD

Anne-Gaëlle Leillard is an accomplished international executive, strategist, and communicator with a proven track record of delivering exceptional results in diverse and multicultural environments. With extensive expertise in the London and French insurance markets, she has excelled in general management, strategic partnerships, and global networks. Her career spans roles in operations, strategy, insurance regulation, and leading international projects, including Brexit solutions.

Anne-Gaëlle served as Chief Development Officer at Cooper Gay from 2019 to 2023, where she was a member of the Board and Executive Committee. She spearheaded European corporate development initiatives, including M&A strategy, due diligence, and post-acquisition integration, while also designing the group's Brexit solution.

Previously, she held senior roles at Lloyd's, where as Head of Coverholder Development, she led global market initiatives for delegated authority business and developed Lloyd's coverholder value proposition. During her time at XL Catlin, she advised the UK & Ireland CEO on strategy, governance, and cross-functional projects. Earlier in her career at Catlin, Anne-Gaëlle played a pivotal role in emerging markets research, strategic partnerships, and operational transformation, including the successful launch of the China Re Syndicate. Bilingual in French and English, Anne-Gaëlle thrives in multicultural environments, drawing on her strong leadership and management skills to drive impactful outcomes.

She is also an Ambassador for the ISC Group and a key member of ISC France, where she champions gender equity and supports initiatives to shape the future of the re/insurance sector.
