

Isabel Hudson

Isabel Hudson is a highly respected leader in the insurance and financial services industry, known for her strategic insight, governance expertise, and commitment to driving positive change. As Chair of Royal London Mutual Insurance Society, she leads one of the UK's largest life, pensions, and investment companies, shaping its long-term vision and success.

In addition to her role at Royal London, Isabel is Non-Executive Director and Chair of the Audit Committee at AXA Group in Paris, where she ensures financial integrity and robust corporate governance for one of the world's largest insurance groups. She is also Chair of The Guide Dogs for the Blind Association, championing life-changing support for blind and partially sighted people.

Passionate about advancing gender equity in the insurance sector, Isabel serves as a Trustee and Non-Executive Director at ISC Group, helping to shape its mission of fostering a more inclusive and representative industry.

With a distinguished career spanning executive and board roles at BT plc, RSA plc, Phoenix Group Holdings, and QBE Insurance, Isabel brings deep expertise in risk management, regulatory compliance, and organisational leadership. A firm believer in the power of diverse perspectives, she continues to influence and shape the future of financial services.
