

SUSAN WILLIAMS-BONET

Susan Williams-Bonet is the Vice President of the Ontario Region at The Wawanesa Mutual Insurance Company, where she is responsible for leading the strategy and performance across the highly competitive Ontario market, one of Wawanesa's key areas for growth. Since joining the company in December 2022, Susan has overseen a team of over 500 insurance professionals across claims, business development, and personal and commercial lines.

With over 25 years of experience in the Canadian insurance industry, Susan brings deep expertise in property and casualty insurance, risk management, sales, underwriting, project management, and IT. Prior to Wawanesa, she held senior roles driving business development and transformation within the insurance industry.

Recognised for her action-oriented and innovative leadership style, Susan excels at delivering creative solutions and driving strategic initiatives to completion. She is adept at building and executing both long-term and short-term business plans while fostering strong communication across teams and with clients. Susan is also a passionate advocate for women in insurance and serves as an ambassador for ISC Group Canada, where she supports the advancement and visibility of women across the re/insurance sector. she also gives her time and expertise to support United Way, helping communities thrive.

She holds an Executive MBA and an Honours Bachelor of Arts. Based in Kitchener, Ontario, Susan and enjoys an active life with her husband and son, together they are avid tennis players and certified scuba divers.

